DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Under MPEP 1302, the examiner may correct obvious typos from Applicant.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 6, "ultrasonic pen of claim 5" has been changed to –ultrasonic pen of claim

1--.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-4, 6-17 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art does teach ultrasonic pen, pressure sensitive tip, and transmitter. The claimed invention does not use these features in the conventional fashion. In the claims, the word "pen" is used to refer to more than a mere ultrasonic transmitter. The "pen" is also a "pen" in the normal sense of the word. The "pen" writes on paper. While this is clearly a normal meaning of the word "pen", the prior art "pens" within the similar context of transmission, pressure sensitive tip, etc. usually referred to making a mark on a tablet rather than paper. The context of these and other limitations of the claims must be considered. As for the context of the other limitations, see, for instance, specification, pages 1-4. In the prior art, authentication is typically limited to the data that is collected at the time of the signature. In a typical prior art, signature shapes collected using pen tablets are typically compared against known shapes to determine authenticity. Thus, the prior art did not teach or suggest the particular features of the claims.
